Circular to all Members of the Clearing Corporation

Circular No. : NCCL/LOGISTICS-001/2026

Date : February 23, 2026

Subject : Physical withdrawal of Goods post Exchange Deliverable Date (EDD)

Reference is invited to the NCCL Master Circular on Warehousing Operations issued vide Circular no. NCCL/LOGISTICS-001/2025 dated April 09, 2025 and more particularly to the para 4 on Guidelines for post EDD, rejected and partial (Non-Marketable Lots) stock. In terms of these guidelines, participants have been advised to ensure physical withdrawal of goods (final load out) latest by the EDD.

It is reiterated that goods whose Exchange Deliverable Date (EDD) is over must be removed from the respective warehouse immediately. Such goods are no longer deliverable on the Exchange platform and, if not withdrawn, blocks space that could otherwise be utilized for fresh commodity deposits by participants.

The three-month period mentioned in para 4, point (ii) of the circular is intended solely for the Warehouse Service Providers (WSPs) to ensure compliance with the guidelines requiring immediate withdrawal of such goods. This should not be construed as additional time given to participants for storing goods beyond their EDD.

Members and their constituents are hereby informed that, if warehouse space is required to accommodate fresh deposits at any of the delivery centres and the existing space is occupied by goods whose EDD is over, the holders of such EDD goods will be required to remove such goods immediately from approved space. Failure to comply may result in NCCL imposing additional occupancy charges on the EDD goods and / or any other actions deemed appropriate.

Members and participants are requested to take note of the same.
