(3) Representation of Employer: Subject to the provisions of this rule, the representatives of the employer in the Works Committee shall be nominated by the employer and shall, as far as may be possible, be officials in direct touch with, or associated with, the working of the industrial establishment.

(4) Consultation with Trade Union: Where the workers of the industrial establishment are members of a registered Trade Union or Trade Unions, the employer shall ask such registered Trade Union or Trade Unions to inform him in writing as to-

- (a) number of the workers who are members of such registered Trade Union or Trade Unions; and
- (b) if the employer has reason to believe that the information furnished to him by the registered Trade Union or Trade Unions is false, he may, after informing such registered Trade Union or Trade Unions, refer the matter to the Joint Labour Commissioner of the concerned area, who shall, after hearing the parties, decide the matter and his decision shall be final.

(5) Group of Worker's representatives: On receipt of the information called for under sub-rule (4), the employer shall provide for the choosing of worker's representative of the Works Committee in the following manner, namely:-

- (a) in case of a negotiating union under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) of Section 14, such negotiating union shall nominate the worker's representatives of the Committee;
- (b) in the case of the negotiating council under sub-section (4) of Section 14, the nomination shall be in such manner that every registered Trade Union representing in the negotiating council shall be represented in the Committee in proportion to the number of workers of the industrial establishment who are members of such Trade Union;

- (c) where there is no recognised negotiating union or negotiating council referred to in clauses (a) and (b), the workers of the industrial establishment shall elect amongst themselves the worker's representatives of the Committee :

Provided that the employer may, deploy an electronic platform for conducting the election process over an information technology application, online platform or such other platform to enable as to how the representatives of workers shall be elected for the Committee under this clause:

Provided further that where a registered Trade Union fails to furnish the information called for under sub-rule (4) within one month of the date on which it is so called for, then, such Trade Union shall for the purpose of this rule be treated as if it did not exist:

Provided also that where any reference has been made by the employer under sub-rule (4), the process of choosing the worker's representative relating thereto shall be held on receipt of the decision of the concerned Joint Labour Commissioner.

(6) Electoral Constituencies: The employer may, if he thinks fit, direct that the workers shall vote in either by groups, sections, shops or departments.

(7) Qualification of candidates for election: Any worker, of not less than nineteen years of age and with a service of not less than one year in the industrial establishment may, if nominated as provided in this rule, be a candidate for election as a worker's representative of the Works Committee:

Provided that such service qualification shall not apply to the first election in an industrial establishment which has been in existence for less than a year.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this sub-rule, a worker who has put in continuous service for not less than one year in two or more industrial establishments belonging to the same employer shall be deemed to have satisfied the service qualification specified therein.

(8) Qualification for voters: All workers who are not less than eighteen years of age and who have put in not less than six months' continuous service in the industrial establishment shall be entitled to vote in the election of the worker's representative of the Works Committee.

Explanation.— For the purposes of this sub-rule, a worker who has put in continuous service of not less than six months in two or more industrial establishments belonging to the same employer shall be deemed to have satisfied the service qualification specified therein.

(9) Fixation of schedule for Election: (i) The employer shall give a minimum time period of at least three working days for filing of nomination along with other requisite details while fixing a date as the closing date for receiving nominations from candidates for election as worker's representatives of the Works Committee.

(ii) The date fixed by the employer for holding the election referred to in clause (i) shall not be earlier than three days and later than fifteen days after the closing date for receiving nominations.

(iii) The date of election fixed under sub-rule (i) shall be notified at least seven days in advance to the workers concerned and such notice, which shall specify the numbers of seats to be elected, shall be affixed on the notice board or electronic notice board of the industrial establishment and given adequate publicity amongst the workers.

(10) Nomination of candidates for election: (i) Every nomination for election as worker's representative of the Works Committee shall be made on a nomination paper to be provided by employer and the copies thereof shall be supplied by the employer to the workers requiring them.

(ii) Each nomination paper referred to in sub-rule (10) shall be signed by the candidate to whom it relates and attested by at least two other voters belonging to the group, section, shop or department, which the candidate seeking election shall represent, and shall be delivered to the employer.

(11) Scrutiny of nomination papers: (i) On the day following the last day fixed for filing nomination papers, the nomination papers shall be scrutinised by the employer in the presence of the candidates and the attesting persons and those nominations which are not valid shall be rejected.

(ii) A nomination paper shall be held to be not valid under sub-rule (11), if-

- (a) the candidate nominated is ineligible for being a candidate under sub-rule (7); or
- (b) the requirements of sub-rule (10) have not been complied with:

Provided that where a candidate or an attesting person is unable to be present at the time of scrutiny, he may send a duly authorised nominee for the purpose.

(12) Withdrawal of candidates: Any candidate whose nomination for election has been accepted may withdraw his candidature within forty-eight hours of the completion of scrutiny of the nomination papers.

(13) Voting in election: (i) If the number of candidates who have been validly nominated for election as worker's representative of the Works Committee is equal to the number of seats, the candidates as such shall be forthwith declared as duly elected.

(ii) Where, in any industrial establishment, the number of candidates validly nominated for election as worker's representative of the Committee is more than the number of seats allotted to it, voting shall take place on the day fixed for election.

(14) Officers of the Works Committee: (i) The Committee shall have among its office-bearers a Chair person, a Vice-Chairperson, a Secretary and a Joint-Secretary.

(ii) The Chairperson of the Committee shall be nominated by the employer from amongst the employer's representatives of the Committee and he shall, as far as possible, be the head of the industrial establishment.

(iii) The Vice-Chairperson shall be elected by the members of the Committee representing the workers, from amongst themselves:

Provided that in the event of equality of votes in the election of the Vice-Chairperson, the matter shall be decided by a draw of lot.

(iv) The Secretary and the Joint Secretary of the Committee shall be elected every year.

(v) The Committee shall elect the Secretary and the Joint Secretary provided that where the Secretary is elected from amongst the representatives of the employers, the Joint Secretary shall be elected from amongst the representatives of the worker and vice versa:

Provided that the post of the Secretary or the Joint Secretary, as the case may be, shall not be held by a representative of the either the employer or the workers for three consecutive years:

Provided further that the employer's representatives shall not take part in the election of the Secretary or Joint Secretary, as the case may be, and only the representatives of the workers shall be entitled to vote in elections for the post of Secretary or Joint Secretary:

Provided also that in the event of equality of votes in an election under this sub-rule, the matter shall be decided by a draw of lot.

(15) Term of office: (i) The term of office of the members of the Works Committee other than a member chosen to fill a casual vacancy shall be three years.

(ii) Every member chosen to fill a casual vacancy shall hold office for the remaining period of the term of his predecessor.

(iii) The membership of any member, who fails to attend three consecutive meetings of the Committee without obtaining leave from the Committee, shall stand forfeited.

(16) Vacancies: In the event of worker's representative ceasing to be a member under clause (iii) of sub-rule (15) or ceasing to be employed in the industrial establishment or in the event of his resignation, death or otherwise, his successor shall be chosen in accordance with the provisions of this rule for the remaining period of the Works Committee from the same group to which the member vacating the seat belonged.

(17) Power to Co-Opt: The Works Committee shall have the right to co-opt persons employed in the industrial establishment having particular or special knowledge of a matter under discussion in a consultative capacity and such co-opted member shall not be entitled to vote and shall be present at meetings only for the period during which the particular question is before the Committee.

(18) Meetings: (i) The Works Committee may meet as often as necessary but not less often than once in three months.

(ii) The Committee shall at its first meeting regulate its own procedure.

(19) Facilities for meetings, etc.: (i) The employer shall provide accommodation for holding meetings of the Works Committee and shall also provide all necessary facilities to the Committee and to its members for carrying out the work of the Committee.

(ii) The Committee shall ordinarily meet during working hours of the industrial establishment concerned on any working day and the representatives of the workers shall be deemed to be on duty while attending the meeting.

(iii) The Secretary of the Committee may with the prior concurrence of the Chairperson, put up notice regarding the functions of the Committee on the notice board of the industrial establishment.

(20) Annual Return: The employer shall submit the details of the constitution and the functioning of the Works Committee as a part of unified annual return provided in the Odisha Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Rules, 2026 framed under the Occupational Safety, Health and Working Condition Code, 2020 (37 of 2020).

(21) Dissolution of Works Committee: The State Government, or the officer authorised in its behalf, may after making such inquiry as it or he may deem fit, dissolve any Committee at any time, by an order for reasons to be recorded in writing, on being satisfied that the Committee has not been constituted in accordance with the provisions of this rule or that not less than two-thirds of the number of representatives of the workers have without any reasonable justification failed to attend three consecutive meetings of the Committee or that the Committee has, for any other reason, ceased to function:

Provided that where the Committee is dissolved under this sub-rule, the employer, may, and if so required by the State Government or, as the case may be, by such officer, shall take steps to re-constitute the Committee in accordance with this rule.

- (c) where retrenchment is carried out under an agreement, which specifies a date for the termination of service, notice of retrenchment shall be sent so as to reach the State Government and a copy thereof to the Labour Commissioner, Odisha; concerned Joint Labour Commissioner or Divisional Labour Commissioner and the local Conciliation Officer, at least one month before such date:

Provided that if the date of termination of service agreed upon is within thirty days of the agreement, the notice of retrenchment shall be sent to State Government along with a copy thereof to the Labour Commissioner, Odisha; concerned Joint Labour Commissioner or Divisional Labour Commissioner and the local Conciliation Officer within three days of the agreement.

45. Manner of giving an opportunity for re-employment to retrenched workers.– (1)

The employer shall prepare a list of all workers in the particular category from which retrenchment is contemplated, arranged according to the seniority of their service in that category and cause a copy thereof to be pasted on a notice board in conspicuous place in the premises of the industrial establishment at least seven days before the actual date of retrenchment.

(2) When any vacancy occurs in an industrial establishment and there are workers of such industrial establishment retrenched within one year prior to the proposal for filling such vacancies, then, the employer of such industrial establishment shall, if such workers are citizens of India and have given their willingness for employment, give them preference over other on the basis of their service seniority.

(3) The employer shall arrange for the display on a notice board in a conspicuous place in the premises of the industrial establishment the details of vacancies at least fifteen days before the date on which such vacancies are to be filled and shall also give intimation of those vacancies by registered post or speed post or through e-mail to every one of all the retrenched workers eligible to be considered therefor, to the latest address or e-mail, given by each of them at the time of retrenchment or at any time thereafter:

Provided that when the number of such vacancies is less than the number of retrenched workers, it shall be sufficient if the intimation is given by the employer individually to the senior most retrenched workers in the list referred to in sub-rule (1) and the number of such senior most workers being double the number of such vacancies:

Provided further that where the vacancy is of duration of less than one month there shall be no obligation on the employer to send intimation of such vacancy to individual retrenched workers:

Provided also that if a retrenched worker, without sufficient cause being shown in writing to the employer, does not offer himself for re-employment on the date or dates specified in the intimation sent to him by the employer under this sub-rule, the employer may not intimate to him the vacancies that may be filled on any subsequent occasion.

(4) Immediately after complying with the provisions of sub-rule (3), the employer shall also inform the negotiating union or the constituent of negotiating council or Trade Unions connected with the industrial establishment, of the number of vacancies to be filled and names of the retrenched workers to whom intimation has been sent under that sub-rule:

Provided that the provisions of this sub-rule need not be complied with by the employer in any case where intimation is sent to every worker mentioned in the list prepared under sub-rule (1).

46. Service of notice by employer for intended closure.— (1) If an employer intends to close down an industrial establishment, he shall give notice within the time as specified in sub-section (1) of Section 74 of such closure in Form-XXIV to the State Government, endorsing a copy thereof to the local Conciliation Officer; concerned Joint / Divisional Labour Commissioner; Labour Commissioner, Odisha, Bhubaneswar electronically or, by registered or speed post.

(2) A copy of the notice referred to in sub-rule (1) shall also be sent to the registered Trade Unions or authorised representatives of workers, as the case may be, operating in the industrial establishments.

CHAPTER X

SPECIAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO LAY-OFF, RETRENCHMENT AND CLOSURE IN CERTAIN ESTABLISHMENTS

47. Manner of making application to State Government by employer for the intended lay-off and manner of serving copy of such application to workers.— (1) An application for permission under sub-section (1) of Section 78 shall be made by the employer in Form XXV to the State Government, endorsing the copy thereof to the local Conciliation Officer; concerned Joint / Divisional Labour Commissioner and Labour Commissioner, Odisha stating clearly therein the reasons for the intended lay off and a copy of such application shall be served simultaneously to the worker concerned electronically, or in person, or by registered post or speed post.

(2) The application referred to in sub-rule (1) shall also be displayed conspicuously by the employer on a notice board or on electronic board at the main entrance of the industrial establishment.

48. Time-limit for review.— (1) The State Government may, either on its own motion or on the application made by the employer or any worker, review its order granting or refusing to grant permission under sub-section (4) of the Section 78.

(2) The employer or any worker concerned, along with the order referred to in sub-rule (1), may make an application, within thirty days from the date on which the order is made, to the State Government for reviewing the order and that State Government shall, within two months from the date on which the application is made, dispose of the same after providing the concerned parties an opportunity of being heard.

(3) Where the State Government decides to review the order referred to in sub-section (1) on its own motion, it may take necessary steps within one month from the date on which the order is made and after providing the concerned parties an opportunity of being heard, dispose of such review within a period of two months from the date on which such decision is taken.

49. Manner of making application to the State Government by employer for intended retrenchment and manner of serving copy of such application to workers.— (1) An application for prior permission referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (1) of Section 79 shall be made by the employer in Form-XXV electronically, stating clearly therein the reasons for the intended retrenchment and a copy of such application shall be sent to the concerned workers electronically, or in person, or by registered post or speed post.

(2) The application referred to in sub-section (1) shall also be displayed conspicuously by the employer on a notice board or on electronic board at the main entrance to the industrial establishment.

50. Time-limit for review.— (1) The State Government may, either on its own motion or on the application made by the employer or any worker, review its order granting or refusing to grant permission under sub-section (3) of Section 79.

(2) The employer or any worker concerned, along with the order referred to in sub-rule (1), may make an application within thirty days from the date on which such order is made, to the State Government for reviewing that order and that Government shall within a period of two months from the date on which such application is made, dispose of the application after providing the concerned parties an opportunity of being heard.

(3) Where the State Government decides to review the order referred to in sub-section (1), on its own motion, it may take necessary steps within one month from the date on which such order is made and after providing the concerned parties an opportunity of being heard, dispose of such review within a period of two months from the date on which such decision is taken.

51. Application to State Government by employer for intended closing down of an industrial establishment and the manner of serving copy of such application to the representatives of workers.— An employer who intends to close down an industrial establishment, to which the provisions of Chapter X of the Code apply, shall apply to the State Government in Form-XXV endorsing the copy thereof to the local Conciliation Officer; concerned Joint or Divisional Labour Commissioner and Labour Commissioner, Odisha electronically for prior permission, at least ninety days before the date on which intended closure is to become effective, stating clearly therein the reasons for such intended closure of the industrial establishment and simultaneously a copy of such application shall also be sent to the representatives of the workers electronically and in person, or by registered post or speed post.

52. Time-limit for review.— (1) The State Government may, either on its own motion or on the application made by the employer or any worker, review its order granting or refusing to grant permission under sub-section (2) of Section 80.

(2) The employer or any worker concerned may make an application along with the order referred to in sub-rule (1), within thirty days from the date on which such order is made, to the State Government for reviewing that order and that Government shall, within two months from the date on which such application is made, dispose of that application after providing the concerned parties an opportunity of being heard.

(3) Where the State Government decides to review the order referred to in sub-section (1) on its own motion, it may take necessary step within one month from the date on which the order is made, and after providing the concerned parties an opportunity of being heard, dispose of such review within a period of two months from the date on which such decision is taken.

CHAPTER XI

WORKER RE-SKILLING FUND

53. Manner of utilisation of fund.— (1) Every employer who has retrenched a worker or workers in his industrial establishments under the Code, shall, within ten days from the date of such retrenchment, electronically transfer an amount equivalent to fifteen days of last drawn wages of such retrenched worker or workers into the designated accounts [name of the account shall be displayed on the website of the Labour & ESI Department, Government of Odisha and the Labour Commissioner, Odisha] to be maintained by the Labour Commissioner, Odisha / office of the Joint Labour Commissioner / office of the Divisional Labour Commissioner, as required.

(2) The fund so received under sub-rule (1) shall be transferred by office of the Labour Commissioner, Odisha / office of the Joint Labour Commissioner / office of the Divisional Labour Commissioner electronically to each of the retrenched worker account or retrenched workers' accounts, as the case may be, within forty-five days of retrenchment to enable him utilise that amount for his re-skilling.

(3) The employer shall also submit the list containing the name of each retrenched worker, the amount equivalent to fifteen days of wages last drawn by such retrenched worker along with his bank account details to office the Labour Commissioner, Odisha or office of the Joint Labour Commissioner or office of the Divisional Labour Commissioner.

CHAPTER XII

OFFENCES AND PENALTIES

54. Manner of compounding of offence by a Gazetted Officer and the manner of making application for compounding of any offence.— (1) The officer notified by the State Government for the purposes of compounding of offences under sub-section (1) of Section 89 (hereinafter referred to as the compounding officer), upon receipt of an application by the accused electronically or by registered post and within 30 days of such receipt, if is of the opinion that any offence under the Code for which the compounding is permissible under the said section and in respect of which prosecution is not instituted, he shall send a notice to the accused in Form-XXVI consisting of three parts through the designated portal of the State Department.

(2) In part I of Form-XXVII, the compounding officer shall, inter alia, specify-

- (a) the name of the offender and his other particulars;
- (b) the details of the offence and the section under which the offence has been committed; and
- (c) the compounding amount required to be paid towards the composition such offence.

(3) In Part II of the Form-XXVI, the compounding officer shall specify the consequences if the offence is not compounded, and part III of the said Form shall contain the application to be filed by the accused, if he desires to compound the offence.

(4) Each notice referred to in sub-rule (1) shall have a continuous unique number containing alphabets or numerical and other details such as compounding officer concerned, industrial establishment, year, place and type of inspection for the purpose of easy identification.

(5) The accused to whom the notice referred to in sub-rule (1) is served, may send the duly filled up application in Part III of Form-XXVI to the compounding officer electronically and deposit the compounding amount electronically in the account specified by the compounding officer, within fifteen days of the receipt of the said notice.

(6) Where the prosecution has already been instituted against the accused in the Court of competent jurisdiction, the accused may make an application to such Court to allow composition of the offence against him and the Court may, after considering the application, allow composition of the offence by the compounding officer in accordance with the provisions of Section 89 and procedure specified in this rule.

(7) If the accused complies with the requirement of sub-rule (5), the compounding officer shall compound the offence for the amount of money deposited by the accused and-

- (a) if the offence is compounded before the institution of prosecution, then, no complaint for prosecution shall be instituted against the accused; and
- (b) if the offence is compounded after the institution of prosecution under sub-rule (6) with the permission of the Court, then, the compounding officer shall treat the case as closed and intimate the composition of offence to the competent Court by which such composition was allowed and after receiving such intimation, the Court shall discharge the accused person and close the prosecution.

CHAPTER XIII

MISCELLANEOUS

55. Protected workers.— (1) Every registered Trade Union connected with an industrial establishment, to which the provisions of the Code apply, shall communicate to the employer before the 30th April of every year, the names and addresses of such of the officers of such Trade Union who are employed in that establishment and who, in the opinion of such Trade Union should be recognised as protected workers.

(2) Any change in the incumbency of any officer of the Trade Union referred to in sub-rule (1) shall be communicated to the employer by such Trade union within fifteen days of such change.

(3) The employer shall, within fifteen days of the receipt of the names and addresses from the Trade Union under sub-rule (1) and subject to the provisions of sub-section (3) and sub-section (4) of Section 90, recognise such workers to be protected workers for the purposes of the said section and communicate to such Trade Union, in writing, the list of workers recognised as protected workers for a period of twelve months from the date of such communication.

(4) Where the total number of names received by the employer under sub-rule (1) exceeds the maximum number of protected workers, admissible for the industrial establishment under sub-section (4) of Section 90, the employer shall recognise only such maximum number of workers as protected workers:

Provided that where there is more than one registered Trade Union in the industrial establishment, the maximum number shall be so distributed by the employer among the Trade Unions that the numbers of recognised protected workers in individual Trade Unions bear practicably the same proportion to one another as the membership figures of the Trade Unions; and the employer shall in that case intimate in writing to the President or the Secretary of the each concerned Trade Union, the number of protected workers allotted to it:

Provided further that where the number of protected workers allotted to such a Trade Union under this sub-rule falls short of the number of officers of such Trade Union seeking protection, then that Trade Union shall be entitled to select the officers to be recognised as protected workers; and such selection shall be made by that Trade Union and communicated to the employer within five days of the receipt of written intimation of the employer in this regard.

(5) Where a dispute arises between an employer and any registered Trade Union in any matter connected with the recognition of protected workers under this rule, such dispute shall be referred to the Joint Labour Commissioner concerned, whose decision thereon shall be final.

56. Complaint by an aggrieved employee.— (1) Every complaint of an aggrieved employee under section 91 shall be made electronically, or by registered post or speed post in Form-XXVI and shall be accompanied by as many copies thereof for each of the opposite parties mentioned in such complaint.

(2) Every complaint under sub-rule (1) shall be verified by the aggrieved employee making the complaint or by the authorised representative of such employee proved to the satisfaction of the conciliation officer, arbitrator, Tribunal or the industrial tribunal, as the case may be, to be acquainted with the facts of the case.

57. Authorisation of worker for representing in any proceeding.— Where the worker is not a member of any Trade Union, then, any member of the executive or other office-bearer of any Trade Union connected with or by any other worker employed in the industry in which the worker is employed, may be authorised in Form-XVII by such worker to represent him in any proceeding under the Code relating to a dispute in which that worker is a party.

58. Authorisation of employer for representing in any proceeding.— Where an employer is not a member of any association of employers, then, such employer may authorise in Form-XVII, an officer of any association of employers connected with, or by any other employer engaged in, the industry in which the employer is engaged, to represent him in any proceeding under the Code relating to a dispute in which that employer is a party.

59. Enquiry.— The manner of holding an enquiry under sub-section (1) of Section 85 shall be those set out by the Central Government in accordance with Section 99(3) of the Code.

60. Expenses of witness.— Every person, who attends or otherwise appears on receipt of a summon, as a witness before an Industrial Tribunal or an arbitral tribunal, shall be entitled to an allowance for expenses on the same rates as applicable to witnesses in the civil court in the State where such enquiry, adjudication or arbitration, as the case may be, is being conducted.

61. Submission of a copy of certain Form to office of Director General, Labour Bureau.— A copy of each of Form-XXII (Notice of strike), Form-XXIII (Notice of lockout), Form-XXIV (Notice of intimation of retrenchment or closure to the State Government), Form-XXV (Application for permission of lay-off or retrenchment or closure) and Form-XXVI (Compounding of offences), shall be shared electronically with Director General, Labour Bureau.

62. Publication for communication.— For the purposes of communication to effect service of messages and documents under these rules, the State Government, the Industrial Tribunal, every employer for which the State Government is the appropriate Government, every Trade Union or negotiating union or the constituents of negotiating council and every authority referred to in these rules, shall specify their e-mail id or website or portal or any or all of them, as the case may be, in their respective letter-heads.

63. Maintenance of records, registers, forms, notice, and display board.— (1) All records, registers, forms, notices, display boards and other documents which are required to be maintained under the Code and under these rules shall also be maintained in electronic manner in the required format or containing the information as is required.

(2) The records, registers, forms, notices, display boards and other documents referred to in sub-rule (1) shall comply with the requirement of retention of records and shall be produced or shown as and when required by the Inspector-cum-Facilitator or the concerned authority specified in this behalf under the Code or these rules.

64. Appointment of Commissioner.— Where it is necessary to appoint a Commissioner under sub-section (3) of Section 59 for the purposes of computing the money value of a benefit referred to in sub-section (2) of the said section, the Tribunal may appoint a-

- (a) person with experience in the particular industry, trade, business or field encompassing the question referred to in sub-section (2) of the said section; or
- (b) person who had been a judge of a civil court; or
- (c) stipendiary magistrate; or
- (d) registrar or secretary of, a Tribunal constituted under any Central /State Act / Code.

65. Fees for the Commissioner, etc.— (1) The Tribunal shall, after consultation with the parties, estimate the probable duration of enquiry by the Commissioner referred to in rule 65 and fix the amount of his fees and other incidental expenses incurred by him.

(2) The Tribunal shall direct the payment of fees and other incidental expenses to the Commissioner into the nearest treasury, within a specified time, by such party or parties and in such proportion, as it may deem fit.

(3) The Commissioner shall not submit his report until the receipt of deposit into the treasury of the sum referred to in sub-rule (2) is filed before the Tribunal:

Provided that the Tribunal may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, direct that any further sum or sums be deposited into the treasury within such time and by such parties as it may deem fit:

Provided further that the Tribunal may in its discretion, extend the time for depositing such sum into the treasury.

(4) The Tribunal may, at any time, for reasons to be recorded in writing, vary the amount of the Commissioner's fees in consultation with the parties.

(5) The Tribunal may direct that the fees shall be disbursed to the Commissioner in such instalments and on such date as it may deem fit.

(6) The undisbursed balance, if any, of the sum deposited under this rule shall be refunded to the respective party or parties who deposited the sum in the same proportion as that in which it was deposited.

66. Time for submission of report.— (1) Every order for the appointment of Commissioner under sub-section (3) of Section 59 shall indicate a date, allowing sufficient time, for the Commissioner to submit his report.

(2) If for any reason the Commissioner anticipates that the date fixed for the submission of his report is likely to be exceeded, he shall apply, before the expiry of the said date, for extension of time setting forth grounds thereof and the Tribunal shall, after consideration, pass suitable orders on such application:

Provided that the Tribunal may, if it deems fit for sufficient cause, grant extension of time even where no application for such extension has been received from the Commissioner within the time limit allowed under sub-rule (1).

67. Power to waive, etc.— Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, the State Government may, when it considers that it is required in the public interest, it may, by notification, waive off or defer any of the provisions of these rules to be in force in whole State or such part thereof for such period as may be specified in the notification.

68. Adoption of procedure prescribed by Central Government.— Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, wherein the State Government is the appropriate Government, but the Central Government has been specifically empowered to prescribe any procedure or make rule under the Code, the State Government shall adopt the same procedure as prescribed by the Central Government.
