FAQs for Companies under Permitted to Trade (PTT) category on NSE Mainboard segment

1. What does admission under PTT mean for our company?

Admission under PTT allows your securities to be traded on NSE without being formally listed on the Exchange. It provides access to a wider investor base through an additional trading platform. Your company continues to remain listed on its primary exchange, with all compliance and disclosure obligations unchanged.

2. Under what regulatory framework does NSE admit securities under the PTT category?

Dealing in Securities are permitted on the Exchange as provided in Chapter IV - 2 (c) of the Byelaws and 3.1.1 of the Regulations - Part A (Capital Market Segment) of the Exchange.

3. Does PTT admission mean we are listed on NSE?

No, your company only remains listed on your primary exchange.

4. Do we need to sign a listing agreement with NSE?

No, companies under PTT are not required to execute a listing agreement with NSE.

5. What compliance obligations do we have with NSE?

The companies admitted for dealing under “Permitted to trade” do not execute the listing agreement with Exchange and therefore do not provide the full disclosures. However, the trading activity of the scrip will be under strict supervision like any other listed scrips and will be subject to all surveillance measures.

6. Will we need to make additional disclosures to NSE?

No separate disclosures are required; existing disclosures to your listing exchange will suffice.

7. Are there any listing charges payable to NSE for PTT admission?

Admitted companies are not required to pay any listing charges to the exchange.

8. Do we need to take any action for investors to trade on NSE?

No, once admitted under PTT, trading is enabled automatically on NSE systems.

9. Does PTT impact our corporate governance requirements?

No, governance requirements remain unchanged and governed by your primary listing exchange.

10. Can we transition from PTT to full listing on NSE?

Yes, subject to meeting NSE’s direct listing requirements and following the applicable process.

11. Can NSE remove our securities from the PTT category?

Chapter IV – Section 12 of the Byelaws and 3.1.2 of the Regulations - Part A (Capital Market Segment) Exchange has a provision that Exchange may prohibit dealings in any security and also at its discretion at any time suspend trading in particular securities as it deems fit.

12. Can a company request its removal from PTT category?

Yes.
