26. (1) Any two or more societies, after passing special resolutions for amalgamating with each other, shall move an application along with copy of resolutions, in such form as may be prescribed for obtaining approval of the Registrar and after getting the approval, shall amalgamate together as one society.

Amalgamation
societies.

(2) Any society, after passing special resolution for division of a society, shall move an application in such form as may be prescribed along with the copy of resolution, for obtaining approval of the Registrar and after getting the approval, shall stand divided.

(3) The special resolution shall contain proposals for the division of the assets and liabilities of the society among the new societies, relationship of the parent society with the divided societies, if any, and may specify the areas of operation of and the members who may constitute each of the new societies:

Provided that before division, the society shall settle all the claims and liabilities or divide the assets and liabilities amongst the societies on pro-rata basis.

(4) No amalgamation or division of a society under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), as the case may be, shall have any effect until and unless the new society or societies is duly registered.

(5) Upon the registration of the new amalgamated society or the divided societies, as the case may be, the assets and liabilities of the original registered society or societies shall, subject to the provisions of this section, be transferred to and become the assets and liabilities of the new society or societies in the manner specified in the special resolution.

CHAPTER XI

INQUIRY AND SUPERSESSION OF THE GOVERNING BODY

27. (1) The Registrar General or the Registrar may, by written order, require any society to furnish in writing such information or document or explanation as provided in the order within such time, not being less than two weeks from the date of receipt of such order.

Power to call for information or explanation.

(2) On receipt of the order under sub-section (1), it shall be the duty of the society to furnish such information or documents or explanation as specified in the order.

28. (1) Where the Registrar General or the Registrar is satisfied that,—

Power to seize records, etc.

(a) the records, registers or the books of account are likely to be tampered with or destroyed and the funds and the property are likely to be misappropriated or misapplied; or

(b) the Governing Body is reconstituted at a general meeting and the outgoing members of the Governing Body refused to hand over charge of the records and property of the society to those entitled to receive such charge; or

(c) the office bearers, where the elections of the Governing Body have not been held by the due date, are likely to misuse such documents, funds, records or are reluctant to hand over the records to the officer appointed for managing the affairs of the society, as an interim measure under section 31, he may issue an order directing a person duly authorised by him in writing to seize and take possession of such documents, funds, records and property whereupon the office bearers responsible for custody of such documents, record, funds and property shall give delivery thereof to the person so authorised.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this clause, the expression “due date” means the date on which the term of a Governing Body of a society expires and by which the elections of the successor body should be completed.

(2) In order to secure compliance of the order under sub-section (1), the Registrar may take or cause to be taken such steps and use or cause to be used such minimum force, including recourse to police force, as may deem appropriate.

inquire.

29. (1) Where on the information received or gathered under section 27 or on the application of a majority of the office bearers or on the application of not less than one-third of the members of the General Body, as the case may be, or, if so moved by the Government or Deputy Commissioner or the Registrar General or Registrar is of the opinion that the affairs of a society are being so conducted as to defeat the aims and objects of the society or its Governing Body is guilty of mismanaging its affairs or of any breach of fiduciary or other like obligations or to defraud its creditors, he may, either himself or by any person authorised by him in that behalf, hold an inquiry into the affairs of the society.

(2) An application to the Registrar General or Registrar under sub-section (1) shall be supported by such evidence, as he may require for the purpose of showing that the applicant has good reason for making an application for an inquiry.

(3) The Registrar General or the Registrar may require the applicants to furnish such security as he thinks fit as the cost of the proposed inquiry, before the inquiry is ordered.

(4) All expenses incidental or preliminary to the inquiry shall, where such inquiry is held,—

(a) on application, be defrayed by the applicants thereof or out of the assets of the society or by the members of the society, in such proportion as the Registrar may, by an order in writing direct; and

(b) on a reference from the Deputy Commissioner of the Union territory or the Registrar be defrayed out of the assets of the society and shall be recoverable as arrears of land revenue.

(5) A person holding an inquiry shall have, at all reasonable times, free access to all the documents and shall have power to call upon any office bearer to produce any of the document, as he may direct.

(6) It shall be the duty of all office bearers, who were or are holding office, to furnish to the person holding inquiry with all the information or documents in their possession.

(7) A person holding an inquiry may summon and examine any person on oath who, he has reason to believe, has knowledge of any affairs of the society and may summon any person to produce any books of account or documents belonging to him or in his custody, if the person holding inquiry has reason to believe that such books of account or documents contain any entries relating to transactions of the society.

(8) A person holding an inquiry may, if in his opinion it is necessary for the purpose of inquiry, seize any or all the documents:

Provided that any person from whose custody such documents are seized shall be entitled to a receipt thereof and make copies thereof.

(9) If the inquiry is held by a person, other than the Registrar then he shall send the report to the Registrar along with his recommendations:

Provided that if such inquiry is held by the Registrar himself, he shall forward the report to the Registrar General along with his recommendations.

(10) The inquiry report shall be communicated to the society and the applicants, if any.

30. The Registrar shall consider the inquiry report along with the recommendations of the person holding inquiry, if any, and take any of the following steps, namely:—

inquiry report.

(a) where no irregularities, whatsoever, of procedural or material nature, are found to have been committed by the Governing Body, he shall order closure of the inquiry along with information thereof to the society and complainants, if any;

(b) where the irregularities or violations committed by the society are found to be of procedural nature, which are rectifiable, he shall direct the society to take recourse to such corrective measures within such time, as he may deem appropriate; or

(c) where the irregularities or violations committed by the society are found to be of a serious or material nature, he shall pass any other appropriate order to meet the ends of justice.

31. (1) Where, based on inspection, inquiry or audit under this Regulation, the Registrar submits a report or recommendation indicating that the Governing Body or a society is not functioning in accordance with the provisions of this Regulation or is acting against the interest of its members, the Registrar shall forward such report or recommendation to the Registrar General.

Supersession of Governing Body and appointment of Officer.

(2) Upon receipt of the report, if the Registrar General is of the opinion that a prima facie case is made out for supersession of the Governing Body, he shall issue a show cause notice indicating the proposed action, consider the response of the society, and if so requested, provide an opportunity of hearing, before passing appropriate order.

(3) The Registrar General, after considering the reply, shall pass an order and may appoint an Officer to manage the affairs of the society with such directions as deemed appropriate and the orders passed by the Registrar General in this behalf shall be final.

(4) The Officer appointed under sub-section (3), shall be a Group “B” Officer or of equivalent rank in the service of the Government or any statutory authority or such person who may have retired from a Group “B” or equivalent position from the Government or the Central Government or a statutory authority.

(5) Where a retired person is appointed as the Officer, the Registrar General may fix the honorarium or remuneration to be paid to the Officer during the course of his appointment at such rates as may be prescribed and direct such expenditure to be defrayed out of the funds of the society.

(6) The Officer appointed under sub-section (3) may hold office for a period which shall not exceed one year in the first instance, but whose term may be extended for such further period, as considered necessary, subject to the same not exceeding three years in total.

(7) On the appointment of the Officer under sub-section (3), the Governing Body shall cease to exercise any powers and discharge and perform any functions or duties conferred or imposed on it under this Regulation or the bye-laws.

(8) The Officer shall exercise all the powers of the Governing Body and perform all such functions or duties during the course of his appointment as provided in the bye-laws, subject to any directions from the Registrar General.

(9) The Officer may, before the expiry of his term, take necessary action to hold the election of the Governing Body, if so required.

(10) If the Officer is, for reasons beyond his control, not able to hold the election of the Governing Body or fails to convene a meeting of the General Body, as the case may be, or in spite of such meeting having been convened, the General Body fails to elect the Governing Body, the Officer shall forthwith send a report to the Registrar who may pass such orders, as may be considered necessary or expedient, either extending the term of appointment of the Officer for a further period or, if satisfied that public interest so necessitates, for the dissolution of the society.

(11) The Registrar may, if he thinks appropriate, appoint a committee to advise and assist the Officer so appointed for exercise of the powers and discharge of the duties and functions conferred or imposed on him under this Regulation.

(12) Where an order of dissolution is passed under sub-section (10), further action shall be taken in accordance with the provisions of this Regulation.

(13) The members of the committee appointed under sub-section (11) shall have such qualifications, as may be prescribed and shall hold such office during the pleasure of the Registrar.

CHAPTER XII

SUSPENSION, CANCELLATION AND DISSOLUTION

Removal of defunct society and cancellation
of registration.

32. (1) Where the Registrar has reasonable cause to believe that a society is defunct and is not carrying on business or operations, he shall issue a show cause notice to such society, at its registered office to show cause as to whether it is carrying on its business or operations and directing it to file such documents or returns, within a period of ninety days, from the date of issuance of notice.

(2) Where the defunct society responds to such notice within specified period and submits the requisite documents or informs along with evidence that it is carrying on business or operations, the Registrar shall, after due verification of records, pass an appropriate order.

(3) If the Registrar receives a reply from the defunct society to the effect that it is not carrying on any business or operations, he may direct the society to convene a meeting of its General Body and pass a special resolution for its dissolution after settling all its liabilities and thereafter apply for dissolution of the society, whereupon it shall be incumbent upon such society to carry out such directions, within specified period.

(4) Where the Registrar does not receive any reply within specified period, he shall cause a public notice to be issued stating that on the expiration of such period as may be specified in such notice, the registration of such defunct society shall be suspended.

(5) If no response is received from the defunct society, its member, creditor or claimant within the specified period, the Registrar shall order suspension of registration of such society and after passing of such order, the society shall not be competent to carry on any business.

(6) An order under sub-section (5) suspending the registration of the society shall be notified through a public notice for the information of general public.

(7) The society, member, creditor or claimant aggrieved with such suspension, may, within a period of three months from the date of order of suspension, submit a representation to the Registrar.

(8) The Registrar, on being satisfied that the society at the time of its suspension, was carrying on business or operations or otherwise and it is just and equitable that the name of the society be restored to the register, may revoke the suspension.

(9) The society whose registration is restored shall be deemed to have continued in existence, as if its registration had not been suspended.

(10) No claims, whatsoever, shall be valid and entertained against a society on expiry of a period of three months from the date of suspension of its registration.

(11) If no representation against the suspension order is received within a period of three months from the date of suspension of registration, the Registrar may, unless contrary is shown, strike out the name of the society from the register and cancel its registration.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section “defunct society” means a society which is not carrying on any business or operation or has not filed its annual or other returns with the Registrar continuously for such period, as may be notified.

33. A society, which has no assets or liabilities to its account and is not desirous of carrying on with its business or operations, may, after passing a special resolution, apply for cancellation of its registration to the Registrar and the Registrar shall, after giving a public notice of not less than ninety days inviting objections, strike out its name from the register of societies, after considering objections, if any.

Cancellation of registration of society with no assets and liabilities.

34. (1) The Registrar may, if he is satisfied that,— Cancellation of registration upon inquiry.

(a) the society has contravened any of the provisions of this Regulation or the rules made thereunder; or

(b) the society is declared insolvent; or

(c) the business of any such society is conducted fraudulently or not in accordance with its bye-laws or the aims and objects specified in its Memorandum; or

(d) it is carrying on any unlawful activity or allowing unlawful activity to be carried on in the premises under its control, he may order an inquiry to be conducted by any other officer authorised by him.

(2) On receipt of inquiry report under sub-section (1), the Registrar may, give a show cause notice to the society specifying briefly the grounds of the proposed cancellation.

(3) The Registrar shall also issue a public notice inviting objections, if any, as to why the registration of society shall not be cancelled and after considering the objections filed by society and public, the Registrar may cancel the registration.

35. When the registration of a society is cancelled, the society shall forthwith cease to carry on its business, except in so far as it may be required for the beneficial winding-up of its affairs, for which purpose it shall pass a special resolution and dissolve itself in the manner as provided in this Regulation:

Effect of cancellation of registration.

Provided that the liability of office bearer shall continue and may be enforced as if the registration of society has not been cancelled.

36. (1) Where the registration of a society is cancelled, the Registrar shall—

Procedure on cancellation of registration.

(a) direct the society to complete the process of its dissolution, collect all its receivables, and settle all its liabilities, provide the details of any of its assets left over after settlement of the liabilities and submit a proposal for transfer of its left-over assets to any other society in existence with identical aims and objects;

(b) assess the credentials of a society to whom any such assets are proposed to be transferred by the society under clause (a) and may either approve such proposal or direct the society to place such assets at the disposal of the Deputy Commissioner;

(c) constitute a committee of members of such society to carry out the process of dissolution of the society where there is no Governing Body or General Body to carry out the directions under clauses (a) and (b);

(d) be competent to complete the dissolution of the affairs of the society of his own or by appointing any of his subordinates to do the needful or associate any two members from any other society in existence for this purpose.

(2) If on dissolution and after settlement of all the liabilities, a society is left with any movable or immovable assets, the Registrar shall, in the first instance, make efforts to transfer all such assets to any other society in existence with identical aims and objects in operation against a proper receipt, failing which, all such assets shall vest in the custody of the Deputy Commissioner.

(3) Where any asset is placed at the disposal of the Deputy Commissioner, he may either direct the transfer thereof to a society in operation with identical aims and objects or use such assets preferably for the same purpose or for any other public purpose.

Dissolution by
resolution.

37. (1) A society may resolve to dissolve itself by passing a special resolution in a meeting of the General Body convened for the purpose.

(2) On passing of the special resolution under sub-section (1), the Governing Body shall take all necessary steps for settlement of all claims and liabilities, as it may consider appropriate in accordance with its bye-laws and if there are no bye-laws, in accordance with the provisions of this Regulation.

(3) If any dispute arises amongst the members of the society, the Governing Body, or the special committee, regarding the winding-up of the affairs of the society, it shall be referred to the Registrar for such directions, as he may consider appropriate:

Provided that the special resolution for dissolution of the society shall not be deemed to be a matter in dispute.

(4) If the Central Government or Government or any of its instrumentalities is a member of or a contributory to or otherwise interested in any society, such society shall not be dissolved without the consent of the Central Government or Government, as the case may be.

(5) After completion of all necessary formalities, the Governing Body shall send a report to the Registrar, mentioning about the surplus assets, if any.

(6) The Registrar shall thereupon cause a public notice issued at the expense of the society inviting objections for dissolution of society from any person interested in the affairs of the society within the period specified in the notice, which shall be not less than three months.

(7) If no objection is received from any claimant, creditor or member of the society within three months from the date of issue of such public notice, and after the surplus assets, if any, have been disposed of under section 39, the Registrar shall make an order confirming the dissolution and thereupon the society shall stand dissolved and the Registrar shall record the order of dissolution in the register maintained in his office and strike off the name of the society from such register.

(8) If any objection is received from any claimant or creditor or member or any other interested person within the period provided under sub-section (7), the Registrar shall not make an order confirming the dissolution of the society unless he is satisfied that the relevant claim or liability have been duly settled and the surplus assets, if any, have been disposed of as provided in this Regulation.

38. (1) Where the Government consents to dissolve a society under section 37 or where the registration of a society is cancelled and it is found to be fit for dissolution under section 32, the Registrar General or the Registrar, as the case may be, shall order dissolution of such society in accordance with the procedure provided in this Regulation.

Dissolution and winding-up by Registrar.

(2) Upon dissolution of a society under sub-section (1), the Registrar General or the Registrar, as the case may be, shall take action for winding-up the affairs of the dissolved society in accordance with the provisions of this Regulation.

39. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 36, after the settlement of claims and liabilities of society, where any surplus assets are left, such assets shall not be paid to or distributed amongst the members of the society, but shall be taken over and vest in the custody of Government:

Disposal of assets.

Provided that in case of a housing society or a resident welfare association is registered as a society, the operation, management and maintenance of facilities for the residents or civic amenities of any defined area, the successor-in-interest shall step in the shoes of original member, subject to fulfilment of qualifications as laid down in the bye-laws of the society and the provisions of this Regulation.

(2) The Government shall place such assets at the disposal of the Deputy Commissioner, who may,—

(a) in the first instance identify any other society in operation with identical aims and objects and transfer such assets to such society;

(b) use such assets, preferably for the purpose for which such assets were created; or

(c) for any other public purpose, as deemed appropriate.

(3) The records of accounts shall be maintained for a period of three years from the date of dissolution and in case any matter pertaining to any such society is pending before any court, such records shall be maintained till the final disposal of such matter by the competent court.

CHAPTER XIII

OFFENCES AND PENALTIES

40. If a society fails to comply with or contravenes any of the provisions of this Regulation, then the society in default shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to two thousand rupees, and in case of a continuing default or contravention, with penalty which may extend to one hundred rupees for each day during which such default or contravention continues.

Penalty for non-compliance.

41. Where any society fails to rectify the defects as directed by the Registrar and where no appeal has been preferred to the Registrar General under sub-section (1) of section 49 or where such appeal has been preferred and the Registrar General has not annulled, reversed or modified the order, the Registrar may take steps to have the defects rectified and may recover the cost, which were incurred for rectification of such defects, from the officers of the society who, in his opinion, have failed to rectify the defects.

Registrar to recover cost from officers of society.

Penalty for falsifying any document.

42. If an office bearer or any employee of the society knowingly or willingly makes or causes to be made any false entry in, or any omission from any register, account, balance-sheet, or other document, required to be maintained by a society under this Regulation, he shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to five thousand rupees and may be removed from the membership of the society.

Penalty for furnishing false information or disobeying summons, requisition or other order or direction.

43. If any office bearer knowingly or willingly makes a false return or furnishes false information or wilfully or without any reasonable reason, disobeys any summons, requisition, or other lawful order or direction issued under the provisions of this Regulation or withholds or fails to furnish any information lawfully required from him by the Registrar or Registrar General or person authorised in this behalf under the provisions of this Regulation, he shall be liable to a penalty which may extend to five thousand rupees, and in the case of a continuing default or contravention, with penalty which may extend to two hundred rupees for every day during which such default or contravention continues.

Crediting of penalties imposed under this Regulation.

44. The penalties under this Chapter shall be imposed by the Registrar General or Registrar or any officer authorised in this behalf by the Registrar General or Registrar, and such sum of penalties shall be credited to the Consolidated Fund of India.

Adjudication mechanism against penalty.

45. Any party aggrieved by the penalty imposed in accordance with the provisions of sections 40, 42 and 43, shall have the following recourse, namely:—

(a) the society concerned may make an appeal, against any penalty imposed under sections 40, 42 and 43, to the Registrar General within a period of two months from the date of the imposition of such penalty;

(b) the Registrar General may, in deciding the appeal, annul, reverse, modify or confirm the order of the Registrar; and

(c) where the society fails to rectify the defects as directed by the Registrar and where no appeal has been made to the Registrar General under clause (a) or where on the appeal so made, the Registrar General has not annulled, reversed or modified the order, the Registrar may himself take steps to have the defects rectified, and may recover the cost from the officers of the society who, in his opinion, have failed to rectify the defects.

Power of Registrar to condone delay in certain cases.

46. The Registrar may, upon an application in writing received from any society and on sufficient cause being shown, allow further time to such society to comply with any of the provisions of this Regulation on payment of such late fees, as may be prescribed.

CHAPTER XIV

MISCELLANEOUS

Legal representation and authority.

47. (1) The committee or any office bearer of the society authorised in this behalf by its bye-laws, may bring or defend any action or other legal proceedings touching or concerning any property or any right or claim of the society and may sue or be sued in its name.

(2) No suit or other legal proceedings shall abate due to any vacancy or change in the position of the President, the Secretary or any office bearer authorised under sub-section (1).

Enforcement of Judgment.

48. The judgment, which shall be delivered against any office bearer of the society, shall not be enforced against such office bearer or his property, either movable or immovable, but shall be enforced against the property of the society.

49 of 1988.

47 of 2023.

Settlement of disputes, distribution of surplus, fee and recovery of dues.

58. (1) Any dispute relating to membership, including admission, termination or rights of members, shall be decided by the Registrar or such authority as may be specified under the rules and the decision of the Registrar in this regard shall be binding, subject to appeal as provided under section 49.

(2) The utilisation or distribution of any surplus, dividend or profit among the members shall be subject to the conditions and limits as may be prescribed ensuring transparency and equitable benefit-sharing.

(3) The fee payable for registration, filing of documents, inspection, certification or any other service rendered under this Regulation shall be in such manner, as may be prescribed.

(4) Any amount due to the Government, the Registrar or the society under this Regulation, including penalties or prescribed fees, shall be recoverable as arrears of land revenue in such manner as may be prescribed.

Power to issue directions.

59. The Government shall be competent to issue such directions to any society, as it may deem appropriate, for the proper enforcement of the provisions of this Regulation and the rules made thereunder.

Power to make rules and laying.

60. (1) The Administrator may, by notification, make rules not inconsistent with the provisions of this Regulation, for carrying out the purposes of this Regulation.

(2) Every rule made under this Regulation shall be laid, as soon as after it is made, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

Act to have overriding effect.

61. The provisions of this Regulation shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any other law for the time being in force in the Union territory.

Removal of difficulties.

62. (1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Regulation, the Administrator may, by an order published in the Official Gazette, make such provisions, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Regulation, as may appear to it to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty:

Provided that no such order shall be made after the expiry of the period of two years from the date of commencement of this Regulation.

(2) Every order made under this section shall, as soon as may be after it is made, be laid before each House of Parliament.

Repeal and saving

63. (1) The Societies Registration Act, 1860, in its application to the Union territory of Andaman and Nicobar Islands is hereby repealed.

21 of 1860.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done or any action taken or purported to have been done or taken under the Act hereby repealed shall, in so far as it is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Regulation, be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provisions of this Regulation.

(3) Subject to the provisions under sub-section (4) of section 6, any society registered at any place in the Union territory of Andaman and Nicobar Islands under the Societies Registration Act, 1860, shall be deemed to have been registered under this Regulation, and its principal office shall be deemed to be the registered office for the purposes of this Regulation:

21 of 1860.

Provided that—

(i) the Memorandum and the bye-laws of any such society, to the extent they are inconsistent with any of the provisions of this Regulation and the rules made thereunder, shall be brought in conformity with the provisions of this Regulation within a period of two years from the date of commencement of this Regulation or within such further period as the Government may, by notification, allow and thereafter, to the extent of such repugnancy or inconsistency, be deemed to be void and shall have no effect;

(ii) any officer elected or appointed to and holding office immediately before the commencement of this Regulation shall continue to hold such office until the expiry of his term of office or until such office is lawfully terminated.

(4) Nothing under this Regulation shall affect any right, privilege, obligation, liability or punishment provided under the repealed Act:

Provided that any investigation or proceedings, including proceedings for dissolution, or the supersession of the Governing Body or appointment of an Administrator commenced before the coming into force of this Regulation, shall be continued and conducted in accordance with the provisions contained in this Regulation.

(5) The mention of particular matters referred to in this section shall not be held to prejudice or affect the general application of section 6 of the General Clauses Act, 1897, with regard to the effect of repeal.

10 of 1897.

DROUPADI MURMU,
President.

DR. RAJIV MANI,
Secretary to the Govt. of India.
